The Parliament of New Zealand enacts as follows:

1 Title

- (1) This Act is the Misuse of Drugs Amendment Act 2005.
- (2) In this Act, the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 is called “the principal Act”.
- (3) In this Act, the Misuse of Drugs Amendment Act 1978 is called “the amendment Act”.

2 Commencement

This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

Part 1
Substantive amendments to Misuse of Drugs Act
1975 and consequential amendments

3 Interpretation

- (1) The definition of precursor substance in section 2(1) of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after the expression “or Part 2”, the expression “or Part 3”.
- (2) Section 2 of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after subsection (1), the following subsection:
“(1A) Any reference in this Act to an amount, level, or quantity at and over which a controlled drug is presumed to be for supply is a reference to the amount, level, or quantity specified in Schedule 5.”

4 Amendment of schedules that identify controlled drugs and precursor substances

- (1) The heading to section 4 of the principal Act is amended by adding the words “, and set amount, level, or quantity at and over which controlled drugs are presumed to be for supply”.
- (2) Section 4 of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after subsection (1), the following subsections:
“(1A) An Order in Council may not be made under subsection (1) in relation to a controlled drug if the effect of the Order in Council is—
“(a) to remove the controlled drug from all of Schedules 1 to 3; or “(b) to move the controlled drug—
“(i) from Schedule 1 to Schedule 2 or Schedule 3; or “(ii) from Schedule 2 to Schedule 3; or
“(iii) from Part 1 of Schedule 2 or of Schedule 3 to another part of the same schedule.
“(1B) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, in accordance with a recommendation of the Minister, amend Schedule 5 by doing any of the following:
“(a) altering the amount, level, or quantity at and over which any controlled drug is presumed to be for supply;
“(b) adding any substance, preparation, mixture, or article that is to be classified as a controlled drug to clause 1 of

Schedule 5 and the amount, level, or quantity at and over which it is presumed to be for supply.

- “(1C) An Order in Council may not be made under subsection (1B)(a) in relation to a controlled drug unless the name or description of the controlled drug is, at the same time, being moved from Schedule 1, 2, or 3, or from a part or clause of Schedule 1, 2, or 3 to another of those schedules, parts, or clauses.
- “(1D) An Order in Council may not be made under subsection (1B)(b) in relation to a substance, preparation, mixture, or article unless its name or description is, at the same time, being added to Schedule 1, 2, or 3.”
- (3) Section 4(2) of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after the expression “subsection (1)”, the expression “or subsection (1B)”.
- (4) Section 4(3) of the principal Act is amended by adding the expression “or subsection (1B)”.
- (5) Section 4(4)(a) and (b) of the principal Act is amended by omitting the words “or the Third Schedule”, and substituting the words “the Third Schedule, or Schedule 5”.

5 Procedure for bringing Order in Council made under section 4(1) into force

- (1) The heading to section 4A of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after the expression “section 4(1)”, the expression “or (1B)”.
- (2) Section 4A(1), (2), (3), and (4) of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after the expression “section 4(1)”, the expression “or (1B)”.

- (2) Section 4B(2) of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after the words “must have regard to”, the words “under subsection (1)(b)”.
- (3) Section 4B of the principal Act is amended by adding the following subsections:

- “(3) Before recommending to the Governor-General that an Order in Council be made under section 4(1B), the Minister must, in relation to the amount, level, or quantity at and over which any controlled drug is to be presumed to be for supply in the proposed Order in Council,—
- “(a) consult with, and consider any advice given by, the Expert Advisory Committee on Drugs established under section 5AA, about the amount, level, or quantity at and over which a controlled drug might be presumed to be for supply; and
 - “(b) have regard to the matters in subsection (4).
- “(4) The matters that the Minister must have regard to under subsection (3)(b), and on which the Expert Advisory Committee on Drugs may give advice, are—
- “(a) the amount of the drug that could reasonably be possessed for personal use, including, without limitation, levels of consumption, the ability of the drug to create physical or psychological dependence, and the specific effects of the drug; and
 - “(b) the amount, level, or quantity at and over which the drug is presumed to be for supply in other jurisdictions; and
 - “(c) any other matters that the Minister considers relevant.”

7 Expert Advisory Committee on Drugs

- (1) Section 5AA(2)(b) of the principal Act is amended by repealing subparagraph (ii), and substituting the following subparagraphs:
- “(ii) the amount, level, or quantity at and over which any substance, preparation, mixture, or article that is a controlled drug (or is proposed to be classified as a controlled drug), and that is to be specified or described in clause 1 of Schedule 5, is to be presumed to be for supply; and
 - “(iii) the level at and over which controlled drugs to which clause 2 of Schedule 5 applies are presumed to be for supply; and”.
- (2) Section 5AA(3) of the principal Act is amended by inserting, after paragraph (c), the following paragraph:

Section 10(1) of the principal Act is amended by omitting the words “or section 9 of this Act” in both places where they appear, and substituting in each case the words “, 9, 12A, or 12AB”.

10 New sections 12AB and 12AC inserted

The principal Act is amended by inserting, after section 12A, the following sections:

“12AB Offence to knowingly import or export precursor substances for unlawful use

- “(1) Every person commits an offence who—
- “(a) imports into New Zealand any precursor substance knowing that it will be used to commit an offence under section 6(1)(b) (which is the offence of producing or manufacturing any controlled drug); or
 - “(b) exports from New Zealand any precursor substance knowing that it will be used to commit an offence under a provision of the law of the country to which the precursor substance is being exported that corresponds to an offence under section 6(1)(b).
- “(2) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 7 years.

- “(3) If a person is summarily convicted of an offence under subsection (1),—
- “(a) a court may sentence the person to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both; and
 - “(b) the sentencing limits contained in section 7 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 do not apply.

“12AC Offence to import or export precursor substance without reasonable excuse

- “(1) Every person commits an offence who, without reasonable excuse, imports into, or exports from, New Zealand any precursor substance.
- “(2) Without limiting the circumstances under subsection (1) in which a person may have a reasonable excuse, a person has a reasonable excuse if—
- “(a) he or she imports a precursor substance into New Zealand in order that—
 - “(i) a medical practitioner, dentist, or veterinarian may, in the circumstances referred to in section 8(2)(a), produce or manufacture a controlled drug from the precursor substance; or
 - “(ii) a pharmacist or any person with the authority and under the immediate supervision of a pharmacist may, in any of the circumstances referred to in section 8(2)(b), produce or manufacture a controlled drug from the precursor substance; or
 - “(iii) the precursor substance be used for a lawful purpose (including, without limitation, an agricultural, commercial, or industrial purpose); or
 - “(b) the precursor substance that he or she is importing into, or exporting from, New Zealand has been lawfully supplied to that person for his or her own medical use; or
 - “(c) he or she exports a precursor substance from New Zealand in order that the precursor substance be used for a purpose that is authorised or lawful under the law of the country to which it is being exported.
- “(3) The requirements in section 67(8) of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 relating to proof of any exception, excuse, or qualification do not apply to an offence under subsection (1).

- “(4) By way of explanation, the effect of subsection (3) is that, in order for a prosecution to be successful, the prosecution must negate beyond a reasonable doubt any reasonable excuse in dispute (being any matter raised as a reasonable excuse by the defendant).
- “(5) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both.”

25 New sections 12A to 12D inserted

The amendment Act is amended by inserting, after section 12, the following sections:

“12A Searches relating to persons involved in delivery under section 12

- “(1) If the circumstances in subsection (2) exist, a member of the police or a Customs officer may, during the course of a delivery in relation to which a Customs officer has exercised his or her powers under section 12,—
- “(a) search any person involved in that delivery; and
 - “(b) detain that person for the purpose of carrying out that search.
- “(2) The circumstances are that the member of the police or the Customs officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person is in possession of any of the following:
- “(a) a controlled drug;
 - “(b) a precursor substance;
 - “(c) a package in relation to which the Customs officer has replaced all or a portion of any controlled drug or precursor substance;
 - “(d) evidence of the commission of an offence under section 6(1)(a) or section 12AB of the principal Act.
- “(3) Reasonable force may be used, if necessary, for either or both of the following purposes:
- “(a) to search a person under subsection (1);
 - “(b) to detain a person under subsection (1).
- “(4) A member of the police or a Customs officer may, without a search warrant issued under section 198 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, enter any building, craft, carriage, vehicle, premises, or place in order to carry out a search under subsection (1).

- “(5) A member of the police or a Customs officer who undertakes a search under subsection (1) must, within 3 working days of the search, give a written report of the search, the circumstances in which the search was conducted, and the matters that gave rise to the reasonable grounds to believe required under subsection (2), to—
- “(a) in the case of a member of the police, the Commissioner of Police; and
 - “(b) in the case of a Customs officer, the chief executive of the New Zealand Customs Service.

“12B Seizure of items found during search under section 12A

- “(1) A member of the police or a Customs officer may seize any thing found on or about a person when carrying out a search under section 12A(1) that the member of the police or the Customs officer has reasonable cause to suspect is a thing described in any of paragraphs (a) to (d) of section 12A(2).
- “(2) Reasonable force may be used, if necessary, to seize the thing.

“12C Obligations on member of police or Customs officer conducting search under section 12A to identify self and power relied on

- “(1) Every member of the police or Customs officer who exercises a power of search under section 12A(1) must—
- “(a) identify himself or herself to any person he or she intends to search; and
 - “(b) advise that person that the search is being undertaken under the authority of section 12A(1).
- “(2) Every member of the police or Customs officer who enters any building, craft, carriage, vehicle, premises, or place in order to carry out a search under section 12A(1) must—
- “(a) identify himself or herself to any person who questions his or her right to enter; and
 - “(b) advise that person that the entry is being undertaken under the authority of section 12A(1).

“12D International controlled delivery and liability for offences

- “(1) In this section, an international controlled delivery means allowing a controlled drug or precursor substance (or substance substituted in the place of a controlled drug or precursor substance) to pass through or into the territory of 1 or more countries—
- “(a) with the agreement of the relevant law enforcement agencies of the countries which it is to pass through or into; and
 - “(b) with a view to identifying persons involved in the commission of an offence—
 - “(i) under section 6(1)(a) or section 12AB of the principal Act; or
 - “(ii) that would, if done or committed in New Zealand, be an offence under either of those sections.
- “(2) Nothing in subsection (3) affects the liability of any person charged with an offence under section 6(1)(a) or section 12AB or section 12AC of the principal Act.
- “(3) Any member of the police, Customs officer, or officer of a relevant law enforcement agency with which there is an agreement under subsection (1)(a) who is involved in an international controlled delivery—
- “(a) does not commit an offence under section 6(1)(a), 12AB, or 12AC of the principal Act by reason of taking part in that international controlled delivery; and
 - “(b) unless he or she is acting in bad faith, is not subject to any criminal or civil liability as a result of taking part in that international controlled delivery.”

26 New sections 13EA to 13EE inserted

“13EA Searches associated with detention warrant

- “(1) If the circumstances in subsection (2) exist, a member of the police or a Customs officer may undertake any of the following in relation to a person (person A):
- “(a) a rub-down search (as defined in section 13EB):
 - “(b) a strip search (as defined in section 13EC):
 - “(c) both a rub-down search and a strip search.

- “(2) The circumstances are that—
- “(a) a detention warrant has been issued under section 13E in relation to person A; and
 - “(b) the member of the police or the Customs officer has reasonable cause to suspect that person A has hidden on or about his or her person any Class A controlled drug or Class B controlled drug.
- “(3) In deciding what type of search to undertake under subsection (1), a member of the police or a Customs officer must have regard to all of the relevant circumstances, including, without limitation, the matters referred to in section 13ED(2).
- “(4) If, as a result of a search under subsection (1), a member of the police or a Customs officer finds any Class A controlled drug or Class B controlled drug, he or she may take possession of it.
- “(5) Reasonable force may be used, if necessary, to undertake a search under subsection (1).
- “(6) If a person who is undergoing a search under subsection (1) makes a request for an internal examination under section 13C(4), the member of the police or the Customs officer conducting the search may continue with and complete the search before arranging for the internal examination to take place.

“13EB Definition of rub-down search

- “(1) For the purposes of this section, section 13EA and sections 13ED to 13M, a rub-down search means a search of a clothed person in which the person conducting the search may do all or any of the following:
- “(a) run or pat his or her hand over the body of the person being searched, whether outside or inside the clothing (other than any underclothing) of that person:
 - “(b) insert his or her hand inside any pocket or pouch in the clothing (other than any underclothing) of the person being searched:
 - “(c) for the purpose of permitting a visual inspection, require the person being searched to do all or any of the following:
 - “(i) open his or her mouth:
 - “(ii) display the palms of his or her hands:
 - “(iii) display the soles of his or her feet:
 - “(iv) lift or rub his or her hair.

- “(2) For the purpose of facilitating any of the actions referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1), the person conducting a rub-down search may require the person being searched—
- “(a) to remove, raise, lower, or open any outer clothing (including (without limitation) any coat, jacket, jumper, or cardigan) being worn by the person being searched, except where that person has no other clothing, or only underclothing, under that outer clothing; and
 - “(b) to remove any head covering, gloves, or footwear (including socks or stockings) being worn by that person.
- “(3) Authority to conduct a rub-down search includes the authority to conduct a visual examination (whether or not facilitated by any instrument or device designed to illuminate or magnify) of the mouth, nose, and ears, but does not authorise the insertion of any instrument, device, or thing into any such orifice.
- “(4) Authority to conduct a rub-down search of a person includes the authority to search—
- “(a) any item carried by, or in the possession of, the person; and
 - “(b) any outer clothing removed, raised, lowered, or opened for the purposes of the search; and
 - “(c) any head covering, gloves, or footwear (including socks or stockings) removed for the purposes of the search.

“13EC Definition of strip search

- “(1) For the purposes of this section, section 13EA, and sections 13ED to 13M, a strip search means a search where the person conducting the search may require the person being searched to remove, raise, lower, or open all or any of that latter person’s clothing.
- “(2) For the purpose of facilitating a strip search, the person conducting the search may require the person being searched to do all or any of the following:
- “(a) open his or her mouth:
 - “(b) display the palms of his or her hands:
 - “(c) lift or rub his or her hair:
 - “(d) display the soles of his or her feet:
 - “(e) raise his or her arms to expose his or her armpits:
 - “(f) with his or her legs spread apart, bend his or her knees.

- “(3) Authority to conduct a strip search includes the authority to conduct a visual examination (whether or not facilitated by any instrument or device designed to illuminate or magnify) of the mouth, nose, and ears, but does not authorise the insertion of any instrument, device, or thing into any such orifice.
- “(4) Authority to conduct a strip search of a person includes the authority to search—
- “(a) any item of clothing removed, raised, lowered, or opened for the purposes of the search; and
 - “(b) any item carried by, or in the possession of, the person.

“13ED Restrictions on searches associated with detention warrant

- “(1) A rub-down search or strip search, or both, may be carried out only by a person of the same sex as the person to be searched, and no strip search may be carried out in view of any person who is not of the same sex as the person to be searched.
- “(2) A person who carries out a rub-down search or strip search, or both, must conduct the search with decency and sensitivity and in a manner that affords to the person being searched the greatest degree of privacy and dignity consistent with the purpose of the search.
- “(3) No member of the police or Customs officer may conduct a strip search unless another member or officer is also present.
- “(4) A strip search of a person must not be carried out in view of any other person who is detained or being searched.

“13EE Reporting search associated with detention warrant

A member of the police or a Customs officer who undertakes a search under section 13EA must, within 3 working days of the search, give a written report of the search, the circumstances in which it was conducted, and the matters that gave rise to the reasonable cause to suspect required by section 13EA(2)(b) to,—

- “(a) in the case of a member of the police, the Commissioner of Police; and
- “(b) in the case of a Customs officer, the chief executive of the New Zealand Customs Service.”

27 Renewal of warrants

- (1) Section 13I(2) of the amendment Act is amended by inserting, after paragraph (c), the following paragraph:

“(ca) the date or dates of any rub-down search or strip search undertaken under section 13EA, the circumstances in which it was conducted, and the results of the search:”.

- (2) Section 13I(5) of the amendment Act is amended by inserting, after the words “or paragraph (c)”, the words “or paragraph (ca)”.

28 Commissioner of Police and chief executive of New Zealand Customs Service to report to Parliament

“(f) the number of rub-down searches and strip searches undertaken by members of the police or Customs officers under section 13EA.”

29 Second Schedule amended

The Second Schedule of the amendment Act is amended by inserting, before the heading “SUPERVISING LAWYER AND DOCTOR” the heading “Searches” and the words “If a detention warrant is issued there are certain circumstances in which a member of the police or a Customs officer may undertake a rub-down search or strip search, or both.”

30 Transitional provision relating to person detained under amendment Act on commencement of this Act

If a person is detained under section 13A of the amendment Act when this Act comes into force, the detained person may not be searched under section 13EA of the amendment Act during the course of that detention.

Scheduling restricted substances

33 Amendment to Schedule 4

- (1) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council, in accordance with a recommendation of the Minister, amend Schedule 4 by—
 - (a) adding the name or description of any substance to Schedule 4, in order that it become a restricted substance; or
 - (b) removing the name or description of any substance from Schedule 4, in order that it no longer be a restricted substance.
- (2) An Order in Council made under subsection (1) may not come into force except in accordance with a commencement order made under section 34.
- (3) Sections 5 to 10 of the Regulations (Disallowance) Act 1989 do not apply to an Order in Council made under subsection (1).
- (4) The Governor-General may, by Order in Council,—
 - (a) amend the name or description of any restricted substance named or described in Schedule 4, if the amendment is necessary for the purpose of making that name or description consistent with international scientific usage;
 - (b) update Schedule 4, if the update is necessary for the purpose of clarifying content or correcting drafting errors.

Compare: 1975 No 116 s 4

34 Procedure for bringing Order in Council into force

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Governor-General may, by Order in Council, make a commencement order bringing any Order in Council made under section 33(1) into force.
- (2) The commencement order may be made only after the Order in Council made under section 33(1) has been approved by resolution of the House of Representatives.

- (3) A resolution of the House of Representatives approving an Order in Council made under section 33(1) may be made at any time after—
- (a) the date that is 28 days after the date on which notice that the Order in Council has been made is given in the Gazette; or
 - (b) if the Gazette notice is given during the period commencing on 24 December in one year and ending on 15 January in the following year, 15 February of that following year.
- (4) An Order in Council made under section 33(1) lapses if—
- (a) a motion to approve the Order in Council is defeated; or
 - (b) no motion to approve the Order in Council is agreed to within 1 year of its date of making.

35 Matters to which Minister must have regard before recommending Order in Council under section 33(1)

- (1) Before recommending to the Governor-General that an Order in Council be made under section 33(1), the Minister must, in respect of each substance referred to in the proposed Order in Council,—
- (a) consult with, and consider any recommendations made by, the Expert Advisory Committee on Drugs, about the substance; and
 - (b) have regard to the matters set out in subsection (2).
- (2) The matters that the Minister must have regard to, and on which the Expert Advisory Committee on Drugs must make recommendations, are—
- (a) the matters set out in section 4B(2) of the principal Act; and
 - (b) the following matters:
 - (i) the purposes for which the substance is currently manufactured, advertised, imported, or sold (including, without limitation, whether it is being manufactured, advertised, imported, or sold as a psychoactive substance);
 - (ii) the practicalities of imposing restrictions or requirements on the substance and the ability to enforce those restrictions and requirements:

- (iii) the extent to which the substance is subject to regulation or control under any other enactment:
 - (iv) the risk of increasing the abuse of the substance due to increased awareness or knowledge of the substance's abuse potential if it is made a restricted substance:
 - (v) the risk of encouraging persons to use more dangerous substitutes in place of the substance:
 - (vi) whether alternatives to restrictions or requirements imposed on the substance are available and are likely to be effective in reducing the risks or harm resulting from abuse of the substance.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), section 4B(2) of the principal Act applies as if every reference to "drug" were a reference to a "substance" (as defined in this Part).

57 Powers of entry and inspection if reasonable grounds to believe offence committed under this Part

- (1) An enforcement officer or a member of the police may enter a place if he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that—
- (a) there is a restricted substance in that place; and

- (b) an offence has been, is being, or will be committed under this Part in relation to that restricted substance in that place.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a dwellinghouse or other residential accommodation.
- (3) An enforcement officer or a member of the police who enters a place under subsection (1) may do any or all of the following things:
 - (a) inspect the place:
 - (b) take photographs or videos of the place:
 - (c) seize any restricted substance, document or record (of any kind), or other article relating to a restricted substance (for example, any advertising or labelling material):
 - (d) copy any documents or records (of any kind) relating to the restricted substance:
 - (e) exercise the powers given by section 58.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (2) prevents a member of the police from entering a dwellinghouse or other residential accommodation and exercising the powers referred to in subsection (3)—
 - (a) with the consent of an occupier; or
 - (b) under authority given by or under an enactment (including another section of this Part, for example, pursuant to a warrant issued under subsection (5)).
- (5) A District Court Judge may issue to a member of the police a warrant to enter any part of a dwellinghouse or other residential accommodation, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that—
 - (a) there is a restricted substance in the dwellinghouse or residential accommodation; and
 - (b) an offence has been, is being, or will be committed under this Part in relation to that restricted substance in that dwellinghouse or residential accommodation.
- (6) A warrant issued under subsection (5) must state a period during which the warrant may be executed, which must not exceed 14 days from the date of its issue.
- (7) An enforcement officer or a member of the police exercising powers under this section in respect of or in a place must,—
 - (a) if a person in charge of the place is present on initial entry, identify himself or herself to the person in charge

- as an enforcement officer or a member of the police;
and
- (b) in the case of an enforcement officer who is asked by a person in charge to do so, produce to the person evidence of identity, his or her instrument of appointment as an enforcement officer, or both; and
 - (c) explain to that person that the authority to enter is under this section.

58 Requirement to give identifying information

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to an enforcement officer or a member of the police who at any time believes on reasonable grounds that within the previous 14 days a restricted substance was sold to a person under the age of 18 years in a place.
- (2) An enforcement officer or a member of the police to whom this subsection applies may,—
 - (a) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that the person who sold the restricted substance is in the place, require that person to give the enforcement officer or a member of the police his or her name and address; and
 - (b) if the person who sold the restricted substance is not present, require any other person in the place who appears to be in charge of it or any part of it, to give the enforcement officer or a member of the police the name and address of (or, if the address is not within the person's knowledge, the name and any other identifying information within the person's knowledge relating to) the person the enforcement officer or a member of the police believes on reasonable grounds sold the restricted substance.
- (3) An enforcement officer or a member of the police who suspects that a person is under the age of 17 years must not under subsection (2)(a) require the person to give the enforcement officer or member of the police his or her name and address unless—
 - (a) there is no other person in the place concerned who appears to be in charge of it; or
 - (b) there is another person in the place who appears to be in charge of it, but the enforcement officer suspects that that person is also under the age of 17 years.

- (4) An enforcement officer or a member of the police who suspects that a person is under the age of 17 years must not under subsection (2)(b) require the person to give the enforcement officer or a member of the police the name and address of (or name and other identifying information relating to) any other person if the other person is in the place concerned and appears to be of or over the age of 17 years.
- (5) The powers given by this section must be used only for, and only to the extent necessary for, finding out the name and address of (or, if the address is not within the knowledge of the person asked, the name and any other identifying information within the person's knowledge relating to) a person the enforcement officer or member of the police concerned believes to have sold a restricted substance to a person under the age of 18 years.
